5 Years
Of Music

We are proud to present our extensive collection of Educational Musical Instruments and toys for babies and young children, offering a perfect balance between safety, high quality, professionally tuned sounds and a captivating and attractive appearance.

Our collection offers endless developmental opportunities for little ones discovering the magical world of music, inspiring wonder, curiosity, and excitement while improving movement and sense of rhythm, and also fostering a lifelong love of music - a key part of our lives.

We trust that you will find lots to inspire you within these pages and look forward to working with you and supporting you throughout the coming years.

INTERACTIVE TUMMY TIME COLLECTION

A fantastic collection of modern developmental toys designed to enhance your baby's sensorimotor experience during tummy time.

What is Tummy Time? Tummy time is when babies are placed on their stomachs to play. It's an important way to help them reach motor milestones by building upper body strength, lifting their heads, rolling over, reaching out for toys, and eventually crawling.

Our Interactive Tummy Time Collection has been created to give your baby many happy moments during this vital growth stage, as adult and baby explore a wonderful world of movement, colours, and sounds together.

SHAKING DRUM

Your baby will enjoy exploring the multisensory effects of this Shaking Drum, as it creates gentle sounds combined with fast and slow movements of colourful beads and shapes. The perfect early ages toy for developing important skills. Visual Stimulating book included.
